EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

Assistance for first-time purchasers of house property under the provisions of Articles 153 and 154 of the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1981, can take the form of a bonus of £110 on savings with a recognised savings institution and a loan of £600, additional to that which the lending institution would otherwise have made, free of interest and any obligation to repay principal for up to 5 years from the date of purchase.

Such assistance is only available where an applicant has been saving with a recognised savings institution for a minimum period of two years immediately preceding the date of his application for assistance and meets certain savings requirements and where the purchase price of the house and the amount of the secured loan from the lending institution fall within certain limits.

This Order adds to Part II of Schedule 10 to the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 the Dungannon Credit Union Limited and the Keady Credit Union Limited as savings institutions recognised for the purposes of Article 153 of that Order.
