the said Term of Two thousand Years, and all Interest to become due for the same; to hold, receive, and take the same unto the said William Lucas Shadwell, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, upon Trust nevertheless for the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and to be assigned and disposed of as he or they should direct or appoint: And whereas by Articles of Agreement bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, and made between the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester of the one Part, and the Reverend John William Goodday Clerk, Rector of Stanmer aforesaid, of the other Part, after reciting the hereinbefore in part recited Act, and the hereinbefore in part recited Indentures of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Days of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight; and reciting, as the Facts were, that no Parsonage House had been built upon any Part of the said Pieces of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches, pursuant to the Provisions in that Behalf of the therein and herein before in part recited Act; and that on or about the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-one the said Rectory and Vicarage were avoided by the Death of the said Thomas Baker, and the said John William Goodday had been collated to the said Rectory by the said Archbishop of Canterbury, and to the said Vicarage by the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, and was then the Incumbent of the said Rectory and Vicarage respectively; and that the said Pieces of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches were found to be inconvenient for the Site of a Parsonage House, and for Glebe to be held therewith, and the Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, or thereabouts, and coloured Green in the Plan drawn in the Margin of the last Skin of the Articles now in recital, (being Part of the said Lands belonging to Court Farm aforesaid, together with a Portion of the said Croft of inclosed Meadow Land on the East Part of the West Lane aforesaid,) were much better adapted for those Purposes; and that by a Valuation of James Hodson of East Dean in the said County of Sussex, Land Surveyor, dated the Twenty-sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, the said Pieces of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches were valued at the yearly Sum of Fourteen Pounds Nine Shillings, and the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch were valued at the yearly Sum of Fifteen Pounds Seven Shillings and Sixpence; and that the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester and the said John William Goodday were mutually desirous and had agreed that the Objects of the said recited Act should be carried into effect, substituting the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch as the Site of the new Parsonage House and the Glebe of the United Rectory and Vicarage for the said Pieces of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches, and the same had been approved of by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as Patron of the said Rectory of Stanmer, and by the Bishop of Chichester as Bishop of the Diocese; and that some Time might intervene before an Act of Parliament could be obtained for effecting the Purposes aforesaid, and the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester was willing to proceed immediately in the Erection of the said intended Building, and in laying out Part of the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch as and for a Garden, and for Yards, Ways, and Passages, to be held and enjoyed with the new Parsonage House, upon such Agreement being entered into by the said John William Goodday as therein-after was contained ; it was witnessed, that in consideration of the Premises the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester did thereby agree with the said John William Goodday that he the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester would, as soon as the Case would admit, at his own Costs and Charges, erect and build and fit up, or cause to be erected and built and fitted up, upon Part of the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, a Parsonage House, with Out-offices and Outbuildings, suitable and convenient for the Habitation of a resident Clergyman of the said United Rectory and Vicarage and his Family, and also lay out and appropriate Part of the same Pieces of Land, not exceeding, with the Site of the said Parsonage House, with Out-offices and Outbuildings, One Acre, as and for a Garden, and for Yards, Ways, and Passages, to be held and enjoyed with the said Parsonage House ; all which Erections, Buildings, and Works should be of such Materials and Dimensions, and in such Manner and Form, in all respects, as should be approved of by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, and the Lord Bishop of Chichester ; and the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester did thereby further agree with the said John William Goodday that he the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester would, at his own Costs and Charges, as soon as the Case would admit, apply for and endeavour to obtain an Act of Parliament for uniting the said Rectory and Parish Church of Stanmer with the said Vicarage and Parish Church of Falmer, and also for exchanging the said Parsonage House and Glebe Land of Stanmer and the said Vicarage House of Falmer for the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, and the new Parsonage House, Out-offices, and Outbuildings to be erected and built by the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester as aforesaid, and generally for effecting all the Purposes intended to be effected by the said in part recited Act, so and in such Manner that the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, and the Parsonage House, Out-offices, and Outbuildings to be erected by the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester as aforesaid, should be substituted for the said Pieces of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches, and the new Parsonage House, Out-offices and Outbuildings, by the said in part recited Act provided to be given in exchange, as therein and herein before is mentioned ; and in consideration of the Premises the said John William Goodday did thereby agree with the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester that he the said John William Goodday would, at the Costs and Charges of the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, his Executors or Administrators, join and concur with the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, or any other Person or Persons claiming under the said recited Settlements or either of them, in making Application for an Act of Parliament for effecting the Purposes therein-before mentioned or referred to : And whereas the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, pursuant to the Agreement in that Behalf contained in the herein-before in part recited Articles of Agreement, hath, at his own Costs and Charges, caused to be erected and built and fitted up upon Part of the said Pieces of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch a Parsonage House, with Out-offices and Outbuildings, suitable and convenient for the Habitation of a resident Clergyman of the said United Rectory and Vicarage and his Family, and hath laid out and appropriated Part of the same Pieces of Land, not exceeding, with the Site of the said Parsonage House, with Out-offices and Outbuildings, One Acre, as and for a Garden, and for Yards,

Indenture of 4th July
1834.

Yards, Ways, and Passages, to be held and enjoyed with the said Parsonage House: And whereas the said Sums of Twenty thousand Pounds and Nine thousand Pounds, mentioned in the said Indenture of Settlement of the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, are not charged upon the said Pieces or Parcels of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, or any Part thereof: And whereas the said John Lord Sheffield, then John Earl of Sheffield, died on or about the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one: And whereas the said Charles Abbott, then Lord Colchester, died on or about the Eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine: And whereas the said Lady Henrietta Juliana Pelham attained her Age of Twenty-one Years before the Date of the Indenture next hereinafter recited: And whereas by an Indenture dated the Fourth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and made between the said Lady Henrietta Juliana Pelham of the First Part, the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester of the Second Part, and the said William Lucas Shadwell of the Third Part, after reciting or noticing, amongst other Things, that all Interest which had become due to the said Lady Henrietta Juliana Pelham for her Seventh Part or Share of and in the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, secured or provided to be raised under the Trusts of the said Term of Two thousand Years, had been duly paid, it was witnessed, that in consideration of the Sum of Seven hundred and fourteen Pounds Five Shillings and Eight-pence to the said Lady Henrietta Juliana Pelham, paid by the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, she the said Lady Henrietta Juliana Pelham, at the Request and on the Nomination of the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, did assign, transfer, and set over unto the said William Lucas Shadwell, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, all that the equal Seventh Part or Share, amounting to Seven hundred and fourteen Pounds Five Shillings and Eight-pence, which she the said Lady Henrietta Juliana Pelham became entitled to, as hereinbefore is mentioned, of and in the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds secured or provided to be raised under the Trusts of the said Term of Two thousand Years, and all Interest to become due for the same, to hold, receive, and take the same unto the said William Lucas Shadwell, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, upon Trust nevertheless for the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and to be assigned and disposed of as he or they should direct or appoint: And whereas the said Lady Catherine Georgiana Pelham and Lady Lucy Anne Pelham are now respectively Infants and unmarried: And whereas there is Issue of the said Marriage between the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester and the said Mary Countess of Chichester Two Children, namely, the Honourable Lady Harriett Mary Pelham and the Honourable Lady Susan Emma Pelham, and no more: And whereas it would be for the Convenience and Accommodation of the Minister and of the Inhabitants of the said Parishes of Falmer and Stanmer, and also of the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, and the other Persons claiming or to claim under the said in part recited Indenture of the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, if the Purposes expressed in the hereinbefore recited Articles of Agreement were carried into execution: And whereas the several Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: Therefore Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the said William Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester on behalf of himself and his said infant infant Children, and the said John William Goodday, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the aforesaid Rectory of Stanmer, together with all and singular the Tithes, Fruits, Payments, Oblations, Obventions, Rights, and Emoluments, of what Nature or Kind soever, thereto belonging or appertaining, shall be united and annexed with the said Vicarage of Falmer otherwise Farmier, to all Effects in Law whatsoever, (save and except out of such Union and Annexation the Parsonage House of Stanmer, with the Buildings, Yard, and Garden thereto belonging, and all the Glebe Land to the said Rectory of Stanmer belonging, and also save and except the Vicarage House of Falmer, and the Buildings, Yard, and Garden thereto belonging,) and that the said Rectory and Vicarage, except as before excepted, shall for ever hereafter be incorporated and consolidated together, and be had, reputed, esteemed, and enjoyed as One Benefice only, by the Name, Style, Title, and Description of "The Rectory of Stanmer with the Vicarage of Falmer annexed, in the County of Sussex, and Deanery of South Malling, the Peculiar and Immediate Jurisdiction of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ, Canterbury, with the Vicarage of Falmer in the County of Sussex and Diocese of Chichester;" and that the said John William Goodday and his Successors, Incumbents for the Time being of the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage, shall have, receive, and take all and singular the Fruits, Tithes, Profits, Oblations, Obventions, and all other Ecclesiastical Rights and Emoluments whatsoever to the said Rectory and Vicarage belonging or appertaining, and hitherto accustomed to be paid to or enjoyed by the respective Rectors and Vicars thereof (except as before excepted), and shall bear, pay, and discharge all Dues, Fees, and Sums of Money payable in respect of the said Rectory and Vicarage respectively; and the said John William Goodday and his Successors, Incumbents of the said United Rectory and Vicarage, shall reside in the said new Parsonage House so erected as aforesaid, but shall celebrate and perform Divine Service and other Spiritual Offices in the said Parishes of Stanmer and Falmer as heretofore.

III. And

The Parsonage House, &c. of Stanmer and the Vicarage House, &c. of Falmer settled to certain Uses.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and immediately after the passing of this Act the said Parsonage House of the Rectory of Stanmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, and also all that Piece or Parcel of Land containing Eighteen Acres, being the Glebe Land of the said Rectory of Stanmer, with the Appurtenances thereto belonging, and also the said Vicarage House of Falmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, and also the said Pieces or Parcels of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches, with their Appurtenances, (all which Premises are particularly described in the First Schedule to this Act,) and the Reversion and Reversions, Remainder and Remainders, Rents, Issues, and Profits thereof, shall be settled, limited, and assured, and the same are hereby from henceforth settled, limited, and assured to, upon, for, and under and subject to such and so many of the Uses, Trusts, Ends, Intents, Purposes, Powers, Provisoos, Limitations, Declarations, and Agreements in and by the herein-before in part recited Indentures of Release of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight respectively limited, expressed, and declared of and concerning the aforesaid Hereditaments in the Parish of Falmer, therein respectively comprised, and thereby respectively limited and assured, as are now subsisting undetermined or capable of taking effect of or in the same Premises, freed and discharged and absolutely acquitted, exempted, and exonerated of and from all Estate, Right, Title, Interest, Claim, or Demand whatsoever of the said William Lord Archbishop of Canterbury or his Successors, Archbishops as aforesaid, the said Edward Lord Bishop of Chichester or his Successors, Bishops as aforesaid, and the said John William Goodday, or any succeeding Incumbent of the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage respectively; and also, as to the said Pieces or Parcels of Land containing Fourteen Acres Two Roods and Twenty-one Perches, with the Appurtenances, freed and discharged and absolutely acquitted, exempted, and exonerated of and from the Uses, Trusts, Ends, Intents, Purposes, Provisoos, Limitations, Declarations, and Agreements from which the said Hereditaments in the said Parish of Falmer comprised in the said Indenture of the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight were freed and discharged under or by virtue of the same Indenture, and the said Common Recovery suffered in pursuance thereof.

Certain Lands to be given in exchange for Parsonage House and Glebe of Stanmer and Vicarage House of Falmer.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of and in exchange for the said Parsonage House of Stanmer, and the Buildings, Yard, Garden, Glebe Lands, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the said Vicarage House of Falmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, hereby settled to the subsisting Uses of the said recited Indentures of Release of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, all those the aforesaid Pieces or Parcels of Land situate at Falmer aforesaid, containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, being Part of the Hereditaments comprised in the herein-before in part recited Indentures of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight respectively, and which are particularly described in the Second Schedule to this Act, together with the new Parsonage House and other Erections and Buildings which have been erected and

and built on some Part thereof as aforesaid, and all Yards, Gardens, Ways, Roads, Easements, and Appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining, and the Reversion and Reversions, Remainder and Remainders, Rents, Issues, and Profits thereof, shall from and immediately after the passing of this Act be annexed to the said Consolidated Rectory of Stanmer with the Vicarage of Falmer as the Parsonage House and the Glebe of the same Rectory and Vicarage, and be held, used, occupied, and enjoyed by the said John William Goodday and his Successors, Incumbents of the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage for the Time being, for ever, freed and discharged and absolutely acquitted, exempted, and exonerated of, from, and against all and every the Uses, Trusts, Intents, Purposes, Powers, Provisoos, Limitations, Declarations, and Agreements in and by the said in part recited Indentures of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight respectively limited, expressed, and declared of and concerning the said Pieces or Parcels of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, or any other Person or Persons who shall, under any of the Limitations respectively contained in the said in part recited Indentures of Release of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, or under or by virtue of this Act, claim or derive Title to the alternate Presentation to the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage, or to any Estate, Right, Title, or Interest of, in, or to the said Parsonage House of Stanmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, Glebe Land, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the said Vicarage House of Falmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, hereby limited to the subsisting Uses of the said Indentures of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, shall at any Time after the passing of this Act be lawfully evicted from the alternate Presentation to the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage, or from the Possession of the said Premises so by this Act settled and limited to the subsisting Uses of the said Indentures of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, as last aforesaid, or any Part thereof, by or through any Defect of Title existing prior to the passing of this Act, so that the Consolidation and Exchange hereby intended to be effected cannot continue, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Henry Thomas Earl of Chichester, or other the Person or Persons so claiming under any of the Limitations in the said Indentures of Release respectively contained, or under this Act, for ever, after such Eviction, to present a Clerk to the Vicarage and Parish Church of Falmer whenever the same shall become vacant, and to enter into and upon the said Pieces or Parcels of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, and the said Parsonage House and Building erected on some Part thereof as aforesaid, with their Appurtenances, so annexed to the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage in Exchange as aforesaid, and the said Advowson of the said Vicarage and Parish Church of Falmer, and the said last-mentioned Pieces or Parcels of Land, and the Parsonage House and Buildings thereon erected, with the

In certain Cases Rectory and exchanged Property to revert to Lord Chichester.

Appur-

Appurtenances, and every Part thereof, to have again, re-possess, and re-enjoy as in his and their first and former Estate, and also for the said John William Goodday and his Successors, Vicars for the Time being of the Vicarage of Falmer, to enter into and upon the said Vicarage House of Falmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, hereby limited to the subsisting Uses of the said Indentures of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight respectively, and the same to have again, re-possess, and re-enjoy as in his and their first and former Estate; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Eviction Clause.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case the said William Lord Archbishop of Canterbury or his Successors, Archbishops as aforesaid for the Time being, shall be lawfully evicted from the alternate Presentation to the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage, or in case the said John William Goodday or his Successors, Incumbents of the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage for the Time being, shall be lawfully evicted from the Possession and Enjoyment of the said new Parsonage House and Buildings so erected as aforesaid, with the Appurtenances, and the said Pieces or Parcels of Land containing Eleven Acres and One Perch, so by this Act annexed to the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage, or any Part thereof, by or through any Defect of Title existing prior to the passing of this Act, so that the said Consolidation and Exchange cannot continue, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said William Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and his Successors, Archbishops as aforesaid for the Time being, for ever, after such Eviction, to present a Clerk to the said Rectory of Stanmer whenever the same shall become vacant, and the said Advowson of the said Rectory and Parish Church of Stanmer, with the Appurtenances, to have again, re-possess, and re-enjoy as in his and their first and former Estate, and also for the said John William Goodday and his Successors, Rectors for the Time being of the said Rectory of Stanmer, to enter into and upon the said Parsonage House of Stanmer, with the Buildings, Yard, Garden, Glebe Land, and Appurtenances thereunto belonging, hereby limited to the subsisting Uses of the said Indentures of the Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one and the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and the same to have again, re-possess, and re-enjoy as in his and their first and former Estate; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

over the said
Rectory.

VII. And be it further enacted, That during the Incumbency of the said John William Goodday in the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage, and at all Time afterwards during the Incumbency of a Clerk who shall have been collated thereto by the Archbishop of Canterbury, or who shall have been by reason of Lapse for Want of such Collation in due Time, or for any other Cause when the Turn of Patronage shall have belonged to the Archbishop of Canterbury, admitted and instituted thereto on the Presentation of the Crown, and during the Vacancy of the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage to be made by the said John William Goodday, or from Time to Time by any such Clerk as aforesaid, all Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction over the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage shall and may be exclusively exercised by the Archbishop of Canterbury for the Time being, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Archbishop of Canterbury at the Time of the passing of this Act is by Law entitled to exercise Peculiar Jurisdiction over the said Rectory of Stanmer only; and that at all other Times all Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction over the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage shall and may be exclusively exercised by the Bishop of Chichester for the Time being, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as the Bishop of Chichester at the Time of the passing of this Act is by Law entitled to exercise Ordinary Jurisdiction over the said Vicarage of Falmer only.

VIII. Provided always; and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That notwithstanding the Consolidation and Union of the said Rectory and Vicarage the said John William Goodday and his Successors, Incumbents thereof for the Time being, shall attend all Archiepiscopal, Episcopal, and Archidiaconal Visitations of the said Churches respectively, and shall pay all Dues, Fees, and Sums of Money due to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Chichester; and the Archdeacon of Lewes and his Official for the Time being, and their respective Successors, and their respective Officers, Ministers, or Servants, as heretofore; and that the Incumbent of the said Consolidated Rectory and Vicarage for the Time being, as often as the same shall become vacant, shall, at the Time of his Collation or Admission and Institution and Induction thereto, pay all Fees and Sums of Money usually due and accustomed to be paid to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishop of Chichester, and their Officers respectively, upon Collation or Admission and Institution and Induction, the same as if the said Rectory and Vicarage had not been united, and as if this Act had not been passed.

All Incumbents of the said Living to attend the Visitations of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Chichester, and the Archdeacon of Lewes, in the same Manner as heretofore.

IX. Provided likewise, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That the Churchwardens of the said Parish Church of Stanmer and the Churchwardens of the said Parish Church of Falmer, notwithstanding the said Union, shall continue to be chosen and admitted to their said Office in the said Parishes respectively, and shall perform the Duties of their said Offices, and shall keep and pass their respective Accounts, in the same Manner as heretofore; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Churchwardens of the said Parish Churches to be chosen and admitted as heretofore.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That notwithstanding the said Consolidation and Union of the Rectory and Vicarage as aforesaid the said respective Parishes of Stanmer and Falmer shall in all other respects, and to and for all other Intents and Purposes whatsoever, be and be deemed and taken to be separate and distinct Parishes.

Consolidated Rectory in all other respects distinct Parishes.
